GIA INDIA LABORATORY PVT. LTD. PRIVACY NOTICE

Last Updated March 1, 2024, v. 5.0.

1. Introduction

GIA INDIA LABORATORY PVT. LTD. (“GIA INDIA,” “WE” OR “US”) and its subsidiaries or affiliated companies respect your privacy. GIA India provides this website privacy notice (“Privacy Notice”) to describe how we collect, use, disclose, or otherwise process the data, including personal data, that we collect about you through our website, <https://www.giaindia.in/> and our other GIA India websites on which this Privacy Notice is posted (collectively, the “Sites”), our mobile application(s) on which this Privacy Notice is posted (the “App(s)”), offline (such as at tradeshows or at GIA India locations), and the services available through our Sites, App, and offline (collectively, the Sites, the App, and GIA India services offered offline are referred to as our “Services”). We collect data directly from you, automatically as you use our Services, from vendors, and from other individuals, as set forth below.

GIA India is the Data Fiduciary for data submitted through our Services at the addresses set forth below.

2. Information We Collect About You

We collect information, including personal data, about you directly from you, from vendors, other parties, and automatically through your use of our Services. We combine the information we collect from these various sources. The type of personal data that we collect from you varies based on your particular interaction with our Services as set out below.

- Account and Registration: Your full name, email address, home and mailing address, telephone number, mobile number, and, where applicable, payment information. You may also provide additional, required or voluntary information, where relevant. We also collect information in accordance with our Know Your Customer and Due Diligence Program.
- Communications: When you communicate with us, provide information through our surveys, in the context of a trade show, or otherwise, for example, if you participate in one of our seminars.
- Seek to Find a Store Near You: Your location information (through the collection of your IP address) in order to locate a store near you.
- Purchase Items From Our Store: Your full name, contact information, items purchased, billing and shipping information, and payment data. You may also provide additional required or voluntary information, where relevant.
- Your Usage of Our Services: Your submission history, inquiries that you submit to us, records of purchases, and other interactions with us.
- Applicant for Employment and Recruitment: We collect information from or about you when registering with our job placement portal, including, but not limited to your full name, residential address, image, email ID or address, phone number, current employment details, work experience, current student status, alumnus status, whether you're a GIA India student and GIA India student ID as may be applicable. You may also provide additional, required or voluntary information, where relevant, including current or past employers name, contact person details, employers address, employers alias, affiliation, company category, company overview, company logo, industry, type of organization, number of employees, company website, videos and any attachments, as may be applicable.
- At Trade Shows and Other Events: We collect information from or about you at trade shows and other events, including at trade shows or other events that we may host or at booths that we may operate. We take photographs and film videos at many of our events and use the photographs and videos to share information about our events on social media and other platforms and generally promote our products and services. Accordingly, when you attend our events, your likeness and image may be contained within these photos and videos.
- Social Network Form Fill: We may process your personal data when you authorize your social network to prefill a form on a Site (e.g., by signing into your social media account(s)) through a button that appears on a Site). In that case, we will receive personal data about you from the social network pursuant to the policies of that social network. Examples of the personal data that we may receive includes your display name, first name, last name, profile URL, profile photo URL, social reach (number of followers), gender, email, date of birth, job title, and company. Your personal data will be processed by us in accordance with this Privacy Notice.

- User Content: You may post to the blogs and forums available within our Services. Any information that you post to a publicly facing blog or forum may be viewable by any other visitor to our Sites or App. We are not responsible for the privacy of any information that you choose to post to our Sites or App, or for the accuracy of any information contained in those postings. We cannot prevent such information from being used in a manner that may violate this Privacy Notice, the law or your personal privacy.
- Social Media: The Services may allow you to connect to and share information with social media platforms and we may be required to implement cookies, plug-ins, and APIs provided by those social media platforms to facilitate those communications and features. We may share information that you provide to us, or that we may collect about your use of the Services with those platforms and that information will be subject to their privacy policies. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any social media platform that you use in connection with the Site. In addition, by choosing to use any third-party social media platform or choosing to share content or communications with any social media platform, you allow us to share information with the designated social media platform. We cannot control any policies or terms of such third-party platforms. As a result, we cannot be responsible for any use or disclosure of your information or content by third party platforms, which you use at your own risk.

3. Information We Collect Automatically

- Device and Online Usage: We collect information about your computer, browser, mobile or other device that you use to access the Services. We may use cookies, pixels, log files and other techniques to collect such information, including IP address, device identifiers and other unique identifiers, browser type, browser language, operating system name and version, device name and model, version, referring and exit pages, dates and times you access our Services, the length of time that you are logged in to or using our Services, the links you click or features you use, software crash reports and session identification number. Please see the “Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies” section below.
- Analytics: Using service providers, we compile and analyze information derived from the use of our Services, such as aggregate usage patterns, user preferences, and other usage information.

GIA India may also enhance or merge your personal data with the data that we obtained from the analytics providers referenced above. We will use this information to assist us in our marketing efforts and for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice.

5. Disclosing Your Information

We will not disclose your personal data to non-subsidiaries or non-affiliated companies for their own marketing purposes. We will, however, disclose your information, including personal data, to entities as described below:

- GIA India Subsidiaries and Affiliated Companies: We will share your information with GIA subsidiaries or affiliated companies, so that they may contact you about our Services (marketing) or respond to your customer service inquiries.
- Service Providers: We disclose your personal data to our service providers, contractors, professional advisors, agents, or others who perform functions on our behalf. These service providers include vendors who assist us with sending out email correspondence, SMS messages, payment processors, and other providers consistent with completing your request to GIA India.
- Social Networking Companies: We disclose your email address to Facebook to assist us in determining relevant advertising on Facebook and through other media. See Online Advertising below.
- Other Users: As stated above, you may choose to submit information on a blog or in a forum. Any information that you submit will be available to other users of our Services.
- General Business Operations: We disclose personal data where necessary to the administration of our general business, accounting, record keeping and legal functions, to our tax advisors, legal counsel and other professional services entities or agents.
- Business Transfers: If we are acquired by or merge with another entity, if some or all of our assets are transferred to another company, or as part of a bankruptcy proceeding, we may transfer the information we have collected from you to the acquiring entity. We also may transfer certain of your personal information to another company in the course of evaluating a prospective transfer, where permitted by law.
- In Response to Legal Process: We disclose your personal data to comply with the law, a judicial proceeding, court order or other legal process, such as in response to a summons or warrant.
- To Protect Us and Others: We disclose your information where we believe it is necessary to investigate, prevent or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the safety rights, property, or security of GIA India, the Services, or of any person or violations of our Terms of Service or this Privacy Notice.

- Other Third Parties: We may share your information with other third parties as permitted by law, including for marketing purposes or to respond to your customer service inquiries.
- Aggregated and Anonymized Information: We may share aggregated or anonymized information about the use of the Services with service providers for marketing, advertising, research, analytics or other similar purposes. We also may publish reports in the aggregate about usage trends of our Services.

Other than as described in this Privacy Notice, you will not be subject to decisions based on automated information processing without your prior consent.

6. Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

We use cookies (including re-marketing cookies), web beacons (including clear GIFs), Flash Local Storage Objects (“Flash LSOs”), analytics and similar technologies, including technologies designed for mobile applications, to track user activity and collect usage data about our Sites and App. We may combine this data with the personal data we have collected from you. See GIA India Cookie Policy for further awareness.

Local Storage Objects. We may use Flash LSOs in order to store your Site preferences and to support individual applications. Flash LSOs are different from browser cookies because of the amount and type of data stored. In addition, you cannot control, delete or disable the acceptance of Flash LSOs through your browser. For more information on Flash LSOs, or to learn how to manage your settings for Flash cookies, go to the Adobe Flash Player Help Page, choose “Global Storage Settings Panel” and follow the instructions. To see the Flash LSOs currently on your computer, choose “Website Storage Settings Panel” and follow the instructions to review and, if you choose, to delete any specific Flash LSO.

Web Beacons, Pixel Tags and Other Technologies. Our service providers use web beacons in HTML emails to our customers, to help us track email response rates, measure the success of our marketing campaigns, identify when our emails are viewed and track whether our emails are forwarded.

Google Maps. Our Sites may include Google Maps features and content. Google Maps features and content is subject to the then-current versions of Google Maps/Google Earth Additional Terms https://maps.google.com/help/terms_maps/ and Google Privacy Policy at <https://policies.google.com/privacy>.

YouTube. Our Sites may use YouTube to make content in video format available to you. By accessing a part of the Sites where videos are available, watching an embedded video, or otherwise interacting with any content made available through YouTube, you signify your agreement with YouTube’s terms and conditions. YouTube collects and otherwise has access to usage data (e.g., what videos you accessed and watched) through videos embedded in the Services as further described in YouTube’s Privacy Policy. YouTube adheres to Google’s privacy policies and principles, part of which allow you to control certain privacy settings and which data are collected. For more information, please visit <https://www.youtube.com/howyoutubeworks/user-settings/privacy/>.

7. Online Advertising

To display more relevant advertising on our Services, to manage our advertising on non-affiliated sites, mobile apps, and online services, and to measure and improve our ads and marketing efforts, we work with Facebook, Google and other non-affiliated ad companies, ad exchanges, channel partners, measurement services and ad networks. Please see the “Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies” section above for more information. For more information and to exercise your choices please see Facebook’s privacy policy and ad preferences page and/or Google/DoubleClick’s privacy policy, ad settings, and ads help page.

You can also learn more about online advertising here and opt out of interest-based advertising from many participating ad companies at the ad industry websites, including:

- EU: <https://www.youronlinechoices.eu/>
- U.S.: <https://youradchoices.com/>

Similarly, you can learn about your options to opt out of mobile app tracking by certain advertising networks through your device settings. For more information about how to change these settings for Apple, Android or Windows devices, see:

- Apple: <https://support.apple.com/en-us/HT202074>
- Android: <https://policies.google.com/technologies/ads>
- Windows: <https://account.microsoft.com/privacy/ad-settings/signedout?ru=https%3A%2F%2Faccount.microsoft.com%2Fprivacy%2Fad-settings>

Please note that opting out of advertising network services does not mean that you will not receive any advertising while using our Services or other services, nor will it prevent the receipt of interest-based advertising from non-affiliated parties that do not participate in these programs.

Custom Audiences and Matching. We may disclose certain information (such as your email address) with non-affiliated parties such as Facebook (more information on Facebook Custom Audience here or see above) so that we can better target ads and content to you, and others with similar interests on these non-affiliated parties' platforms or networks ("Custom Audiences"). We may also work with ad networks and marketing platforms that enable us and other participants to target ads to Custom Audiences submitted by us and others. To opt out of being included in our Custom Audiences going forward, email us at indiaprivacy@gia.edu.

Do Not Track. Your browser or device may include "Do Not Track" settings or functionality. Currently, our systems do not recognize browser "Do Not Track" requests. However, you may disable certain tracking on our Sites, as discussed above (e.g., by disabling cookies), and you may opt out of certain ad networks as described in this Privacy Notice. For more information about Do Not Track signals, please click here.

8. Marketing Choices

To the extent permitted by applicable law, we periodically send you electronic communications about our various products, services, or newsletters via email or in selected markets also via SMS. You may opt out of the receipt of marketing communications by clicking the "unsubscribe" options, by sending an opt-out request to indiaprivacy@gia.edu, or where applicable, texting us STOP at the number you received the SMS. If you opt out of receiving marketing communications from us, please note that we may still send you email regarding your account, purchases, or for any other Services you have requested or received from us.

9. Links

For your convenience, we may provide links to certain non-affiliated websites or referrals to certain non-GIA India products or services. If you choose to visit these websites or to use such products or services, please be aware that the third party's privacy policy, and not this Privacy Notice, will govern your activities and any information you disclose while interacting with these limited websites. We are not responsible for the information practices of such non-affiliated websites or applications.

10. Security

We have taken steps to help protect the personal data we collect. However, no data security measures can guarantee 100% security. You should take steps to protect against unauthorized access to your device and account by, among other things, choosing a robust password that nobody else knows or can easily guess and keeping your login and password private.

11. Job Applicants

You may apply for employment at GIA India online. If you submit an application for employment, we request information such as contact information, nationality (i.e., resident/non-resident of India, country, references, languages spoken, skills, prior work experience, and resume. Your submission of a resume, job application, or related information does not in any way require us to review that information or consider you for employment. The information you provide will be used for purposes of processing your employment application, for any legally required purposes (including to protect our rights and interest and the rights and interests of others), and as described during the application process and on GIA India's website.

12. Transfer of Your Personal Data

Depending upon your particular interaction with us, your personal data may be transferred, accessed, stored and otherwise processed by us, other third parties, or service providers for the purposes described above, and subject to requests from law enforcement (including courts and tribunals in accordance with laws applicable in those jurisdictions), in jurisdictions outside of your home jurisdiction, including the United States and India, and may not provide an equivalent level of data protection as your home jurisdiction. GIA India takes steps to protect personal data, including, where required by law, through appropriate written data processing terms and/or data transfer agreements, for example, by signing relevant standard contractual clauses. Subject to applicable law, you have the right to obtain details about the mechanism under which your personal data is transferred cross-border. For more information about these transfer mechanisms, please contact indiaprivacy@gia.edu.

13. Changes to This Privacy Notice

GIA India reserves the right to modify this Privacy Notice as it deems appropriate from time to time. If we make a material change to this Privacy Notice, you will be provided with appropriate notice, in accordance with applicable legal requirements. You may find the most current version
