

Diamond Trading Network

Access quality diamonds, prices, people and market intelligence

GIA India conducts Pan-India education seminars for members of the gem and jewellery industry

ANI 17-12-2018

New Delhi [India], Dec 17 (ANI-BusinessWireIndia): To protect consumers and help ensure public trust in gems and jewellery, GIA India organised more than 30 education seminars for various associations during October and November across India.

More than 2,000 members of the gem and jewellery trade gained important information through educational seminars in Andhra Pradesh, Kerala, Gujarat, Haryana, Uttarakhand and Maharashtra. The seminars covered topics including natural diamonds, lab-grown diamonds, diamond treatments, coloured gemstones and pearls.

Nirupa Bhatt, Managing Director of GIA India and Middle East, said, "As a public-benefit institute, GIA works to create awareness and educate the trade through our education seminars. Working closely with regional associations, GIA India has been able to reach out to trade members in Tier-II and Tier-III locations such as Buchireddypalem (Andhra Pradesh), Kannanalloor (Kerala), Panipat (Haryana), Karnal (Uttar Pradesh), Morbi (Gujarat) and many more."

GIA India conducts trade seminars and workshops on a variety of current topics including diamond and gemstone basics, lab-grown diamonds, simulants and treatments. GIA also offers courses on diamonds, coloured stones, pearls, merchandising, jewellery design and more. (ANI-BusinessWireIndia)

MORE FOR YOU

Chitrangda Singh reveals her darkest secret

Bollywood stars who got married outside India